ABOUT LA JOLLA PLAYHOUSE

La Jolla Playhouse is a place where artists and audiences come together to create what's new and next in the American theatre, from Tony Award-winning productions, to imaginative programs for young audiences, to interactive experiences outside our theatre walls. Founded in 1947 by Gregory Peck, Dorothy McGuire and Mel Ferrer, the Playhouse is currently led by Tony Award winner Christopher Ashley, the Rich Family Artistic Director of La Jolla Playhouse, and Managing Director Debby Buchholz. The Playhouse is internationally renowned for the development of new plays and musicals, including mounting 105 world premieres, commissioning more than 60 new works, and sending 33 productions to Broadway – including the hit musical Come From Away – garnering a total of 38 Tony Awards, as well as the 1993 Tony Award for Outstanding Regional Theatre.

ABOUT WITHOUT WALLS

Over the last ten years, the Playhouse's Without Walls (WOW) program has become one of the city's most popular and acclaimed performance series, offering patrons the chance to experience immersive and site-inspired pieces in unique locations all around the San Diego community. Past WOW productions include Susurrus (2011) at the San Diego Botanic Garden, The Car Plays: San Diego (2011) in the Playhouse parking lot, Sam Bendrix at the Bon Soir (2012) at Martini's Above Fourth, Accomplice: San Diego (2013) in Little Italy, El Henry (2014) at SILO in Makers Quarter, The Grift at the Lafayette Hotel (2015) in North Park, The Bitter Game (2016) in Southeast San Diego, as well as WOW Festivals in 2013, 2015, 2017 and 2019.
